WORKMEN MAY SUE COUNTY FOR PAY

To Have Hand In Row

That the workmen, employed by the Board of Supervisors on the road, and now rendered payless through the decision of the Supreme Court, may bring suit against the City and County, is the belief of at least one public official in close touch with the trend of events.

It is suggested that, as the work men appointed by the Board, actually put in their, time on the roads, and carned their money beyond dispute an action against the county must fie Bu the courts. At least one Supervisor is said to favor this course of
